Early Career Teacher Induction

Our Early Career and Appropriate Body team are committed to providing high-quality, timely support and advice to schools, and Early Career Teachers, throughout the induction journey. We pride ourselves in developing positive working relationships with our partners, ensuring colleagues are effectively supported to confidently implement the new statutory guidance within their settings.

Our Appropriate Body service includes:

- A welcome meeting for Early Career Teachers, delivered remotely.
- An Induction Co-ordinator and Tutor familiarisation meeting to understand the Appropriate Body systems and processes, to support them in fulfilling their roles.
- An easy-to-use online assessment system to manage the induction process.
- Supportive feedback, at key points, to aid in-school assessment processes.
- Review termly progress reviews and formal assessments, ensuring progress is reported satisfactorily, and appropriate induction support is in place.
- Inform the Teaching Regulation Agency, as required, to ensure Early Career Teacher records are accurately maintained and induction progress reported.
- Provide advice to support schools in effectively managing NQT Induction queries and concerns.
